Buy a website that makes money

Is it a good idea to buy a website that makes money? The answer is definitely YES. It's a great idea to buy a website that makes money instead of starting one from scratch, you can buy one that is tested and guaranteed it makes money online.

I have been in this business for long long time, and I have seen all. When I started to learn about making money online, I knew then that the best way to make money online is first of all having my own domain name and my own website, so I started to create my website and when it was finished I started to promote this website online, I had spent hundreds of dollars with almost 18 hours a day on promoting this website to generate as much traffic as I could. And my marketing was really successful when I started to generate more than 1000 unique visitors to my website each day, almost all of them from Google and Yahoo.

But honestly I never made any money except some dollars from Google AdSense, so what was the problem?

My website did not convert, that is the only reason why people were clicking on my Google ads instead of reading more of my content and clicking on some other affiliate offers.

So I needed to change my website, I did it more than 4 times without any success, and the website was already attracting a lot of traffic but did not make any money.

So I needed help, I contacted one of the most successful internet marketers online who is making millions of dollars from affiliate marketing, but he never answered, so instead of trying again and again I started to research what he was doing, how his own websites are looking and how he promote affiliate offers.

After hard research I knew it had to be simple, and the best way is to buy a website that make money instead of trying more and more and losing more time and more money. So simple I contacted him again but this time I asked him to sell me a website templates of his own, a website that really convert and really make money online.

This time he answered and fast, he showed me a template that he already used, he sold me the full website with his own content and blog, but t was on another niche, and he told me that I have to change the content and write my, and change the offers to related offers from Clickbank and Amazon. And insert my own Google adsense.

I did so, and I started to make money almost instantly, it was very simple because you need to make it really simple for your visitors to take action.

Three days ago he contacted me again and told me that my request has give him a good idea of offering such money making websites to newbie's who are finding it difficult to build their own money making websites. So now he asked his own team to create some money making websites and sell them with cheap price to affiliate and people looking for ways to make money online.

Now you can buy a website that makes money, tested and guaranteed to work. It's simply designed to make money from targeted affiliate offers, ad space and more, it also have a great looking, designed to attract traffic from search engines, traffic that really convert and make money.
